

Book Club

The college has el-Libro-club. The club promotes the reading culture among students. The club organizes the book reviews. The authors are invited for review and students have live interaction with authors. This also gives opportunity to practice public speaking.