

Cosmic Language Club

The objective of the Cosmic Language Club is to enhance students' exposure to authentic English through media & books. The club offers the platform to students for expressing their views about technological, political, social development happening around the globe.

The club organizes interactions, resource lectures and competitions on the related topics. The club has its blog & social media page. Club has British Library Membership which offers access to resources of the library.