

MKCL Center

The college has Authorized Learning Center (ALC) of Maharashtra Knowledge Corporation Limited (MKCL). MKCL is promoted by the Department of Higher and Technical Education, Government of Maharashtra, India.

The center organizes continuous education & skill development programs for students, faculty and common man. Center conducts life long learning courses with developmental orientation. It facilitates universal access through information technology.