

e-Yantra

The college has e-Yantra project which is sponsored by MHRD through NMEICT to spread effective embedded systems & robotics education at engineering colleges. College has set up the e-Yantra lab in association with IIT Bombay. The lab facilitates the students to carry out robot projects. The college organizes training program to students. The students participate in state level & national robot competitions and grab prizes.